Riverside Little League Training

The following baseball training programs are open to members of the Riverside Little League. These camps will cover age-specific pitching mechanics with Tim Dennehy (drafted by Yankees, current OPRF Varsity pitching coach) and catching fundamentals with Tug Gillingham (played Independent League Pro Ball, current head baseball Coach at Lincoln Park High School).

Registration will be limited to 16 per session and participants should indicate which position they play (players that do both are allowed). Players should bring proper equipment, as limited catching equipment will be available for use. Registration will close at noon the Friday prior to each camp.

All sessions will be held at 18w Chicago Ave in Oak Park.

Fee: $20 per session
